Conference Details

The IAFP's Annual Conference will take place at the Shore Lodge in McCall, ID on May 5-6, 2023.

The Idaho Academy of Family Physicians invites you to attend our 2023 Annual Conference and 13.5 continuing medical education (CME) event. This event offers interesting topics of relevance to Family Physicians, all while you enjoy the casual elegance of the Shore Lodge.

Knowledge Self-Assessment (KSA) – A KSA on Health Counseling and Preventive Care will be offered on Sunday, May 7 from 8 am-12 pm at the Shore Lodge. You must select this option, at an additional cost, when you register for the event.

Registration – You can register for this year's event at idahofamilyphysicians.org/conference/

Lodging and Dining – You can book your room via the link on our conference website or by calling the Shore Lodge at 1-800-657-6464. IAFP's room block rates will be held until April 4th, 2023. All cancellations are fully refundable up to 15 days prior to arrival.

Your registration covers the full event, and includes conference meals specified in our agenda, though we ask for your RSVP to our Reception on the evening of Thursday, May 4 and lunches on May 5-6 to match food availability with actual attendance.

Cancellations are per the terms of the Shore Lodge and must be made 15 days prior to the event.

Special Events and Networking

Please join us for a Welcome Reception starting at 5:30 pm on Thursday, May 4 at the Shore Lodge. We are also hosting a Member Roundtable on NCCL/COD Resolutions for 2023 at 5 pm on Friday, May 5.

Installation of Officers and Awards Event

Daron W. Gersch, MD, FAAFP, and AAFP Vice Speaker will install officers of the board and address the membership on Friday, May 5 at 10:00 am. On Saturday, May 6 at 12:00 pm, we will honor our Idaho Family Physician of the Year for 2023 and present our Advocacy Award.

Exhibits

This year's event will include an Exhibitor Hall and over one-dozen exhibitors. The Exhibitor Hall officially opens in the morning on May 5 and breaks are built into the agenda for you to visit our exhibitors. A total of 2.5 hours of time for visiting exhibitors is built into the program and exhibitor visits will be incentivized with two raffles to be drawn at the end of each day's program. Please make a special effort to visit all the exhibit booths.

Learning objectives

Through the course of this conference, participants will experience a review of the findings of critical articles and studies over the past 24 months in outpatient and inpatient care. They will learn dermatology tips relevant to Family Medicine, receive detailed information about important nuances in newborn care (prophylaxis and vitamin K deficiency), and learn new tools and practices to support patients with suicidal ideation. Attendees will also learn about the management of hypertension in pregnancy, best treatments for adult ADHD, and participate in a detailed workshop on implicit bias and bystander training for medical professionals. Those attending the conference will receive information about the clinical impacts of Idaho's reproductive health laws, caring for gender diverse patients, reframing, and treating obesity in Primary Care and will get to participate in a workshop utilizing Point of Care Ultrasound for musculoskeletal issues.

Accreditation

The AAFP has reviewed IAFP 2023 Annual Conference and deemed it acceptable for up to 13.50 Live AAFP Prescribed credits. Term of Approval is from 05/05/2023 to 05/06/2023. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. It is the policy of IAFP's education committee to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all its sponsored educational programs. All speakers are expected to disclose to the program audience any real or apparent conflicts of interest related to the content of their presentation(s).
